

A bouquet of flowers, including a large orange-red flower and several blue flowers, is set against a dark background. A heart-shaped object, made of cracked glass or a similar material, is prominently displayed in the upper center of the bouquet. The heart is filled with a dark red liquid and has a complex, fractured pattern on its surface. The text 'BEZDUSZNY PSYCHOPATA' is overlaid on the bouquet in a white, stylized, serif font.
